A Ganar Ser Paz

Ecuador

Fighting youth unemployment and gang violence in Ecuador

The organisations Ser Paz and Fundación de las Américas para el Desarrollo (FUDELA) are sending a joint delegation to the Football for Hope Festival. Through its programme 'A Ganar', FUDELA combats youth unemployment by using football as a tool for the education and motivation of young under-privileged people. An 80-hour workshop is followed by a vocational training period and internship, enabling the participants to succeed on the labour market.

Ser Paz works with members of 'pandillas' or violent youth gangs. The programme aims at encouraging gang members to move away from street violence with opportunities for entrepreneurial training and promoting peaceful co-existence among rival gangs. Its 'Paz Urbana' (Urban Peace) football tournaments have even resulted in gang members surrendering their weapons to the authorities.
